

Dr. Sony Sunaryo

Associate Professor

Drs. (Statistics-ITS, 1988); M.Si. (Statistics-IPB, 1997); Dr. (Statistics-IPB, 2005)

RESEARCH INTEREST

Generalized Linear Model,
Multivariate Analysis,
Structural Equation Modelling,
Optimal Design and Response
Surface Method.

Dr. Sony Sunaryo obtained his doctoral degree in Statistics from IPB, Bogor, Indonesia, in 2005. His dissertation is about development of statistical method for Calibration Models using Wavelet Transform Preprocessing.

He became a lecturer at Department of Statistics, ITS, Surabaya since 1989. He teaches some courses such as design of experiment, multivariate analysis and generalized linear model, both in undergraduate and postgraduate program. He also writes papers and publish in several journals and seminars. Recently, most of his researches focused on Multivariate Analysis.
